

DAR Margaret Cochran Corbin Award Recipients

The Margaret Cochran Corbin Award honors the memory of Revolutionary War heroine Margaret Corbin, who stepped up to man her husband's cannon when he was mortally wounded at the Battle of Fort Washington in 1776. This award pays tribute to women in all branches of the military for distinguished military service.

The award is presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution at their annual national convention, DAR Continental Congress, in Washington, D.C. during the National Defense Night Ceremony which is attended by more than 3,500 DAR members and their guests.
