

Friday

Dear Mrs. Roberts:

First, am better, and feel sure will be O.K. real soon. Do not worry. Am keeping in touch with all - altho was "floored completely" for a while.

Doubtless you received telegram which is enclosed.

Mr. Wrigley's remarks were that considerable reaction would occur from this action, by the Conservatives who ~~are~~ have so far remained silent.

In regard to answers to those many letters, it was his advise to go slow thereby letting the writers cool down. Advise please, if you wish letters still shown to Mr. Nesbit, in company with Mr. Wingley. ^{Maybe we can} ^{from these 2 men,} get situation sized up, after hearing from you, if this is what you wish done, early next week.

Sentiment here in Washington is very evenly divided, and a few days watching, will give opportunity to observe reactions.

It would seem good logic, to me, to wait a while longer, before any replies are sent. We will await your further instructions. Mr. Wingley will likely write you also.

As to me and my grippe, let me tell you of that and my disappointment of falling "by the wayside" later. You have too many urgent things to think of just now. Thank Heaven though, Sam better and will soon be well again.

My love to you.

Faithfully,

Marquieili Schondau

Meanwhile - do not worry! It is still private property they are desiring, ^(Cons. Hall) and you have received some fine letters of commendation.

In this day - it seems all the "isms" in the world break loose in an effort to tear down good common sense!

This vote taken, however, after receiving reports from School Buildings Committee saying if Board wanted to change its action rental of the building was not to be regarded as a precedent or to up-set established rules in D.C.
