LOYALISTS

April 14, 1775- British General Thomas Gage is ordered to arrest noted rebel Samuel Adams. On April 18, Gage sends a detachment of soldiers from Boston, MA towards the towns of Lexington and Concord.

As a citizen loyal to the crown, can you help Gage's troops find Adams before he can escape?

Congratulations!

You found Samuel Adams and John Hancock hiding at the Hancock-Clarke House in Lexington, MA.

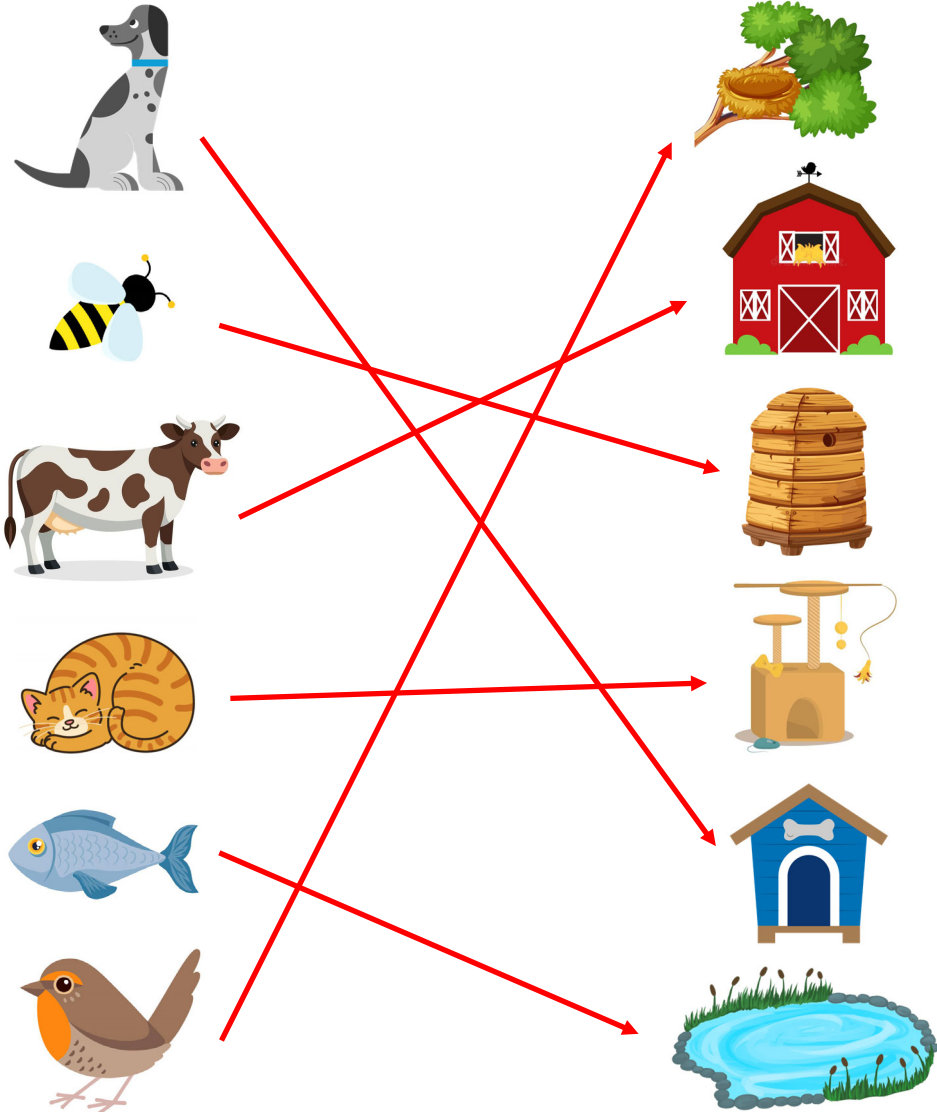

Unfortunately, Patriots arrived in time to warn these men, and they were able to escape North to Burlington, MA.

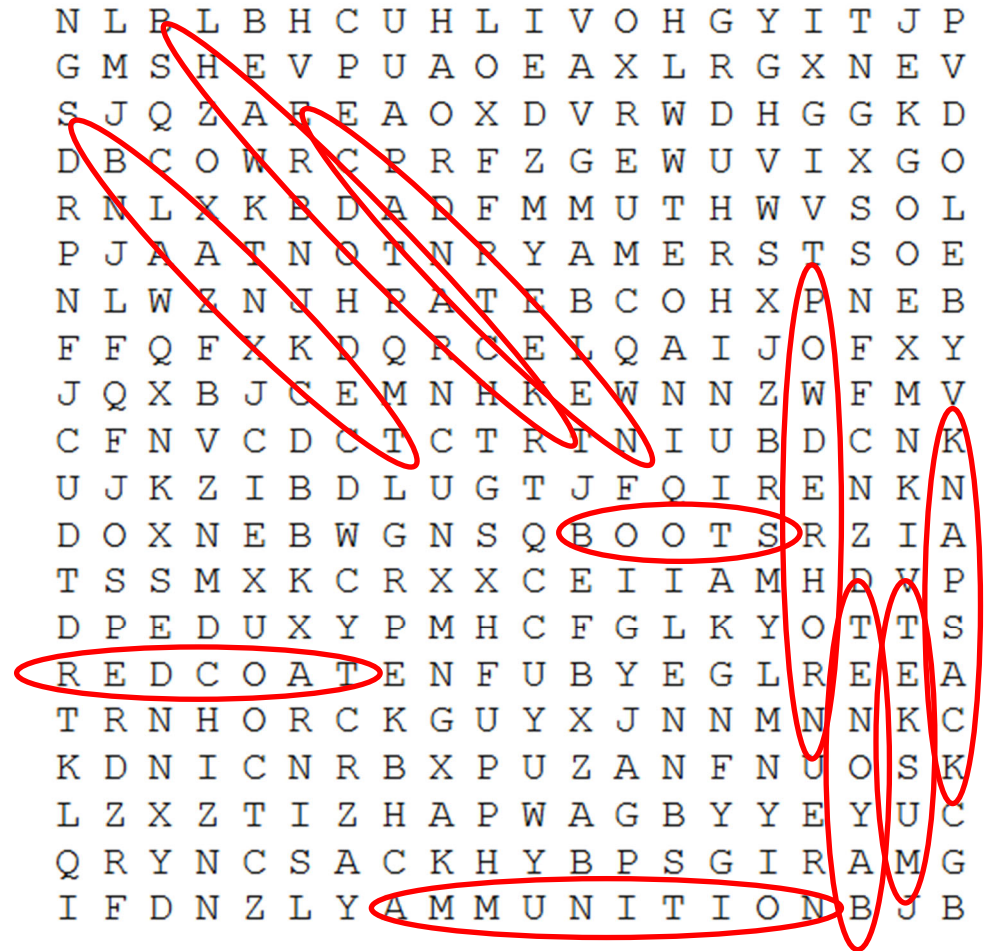

The local militias have also arrived, starting the Battles of Lexington and Concord.

Now that we've arrived in Lexington,
we need to figure out which house

We’ve gotten word that Samuel Adams is with his friend and fellow rebel John Hancock at Hancock’s childhood home in Lexington. The Hancock family made their wealth as merchants.

Connect the dots to find a key part of the merchant business.

Oh no! General Gage's troops seem to be lost in the wetlands around Lexington. Can you help them find their way into town?
