PRESENTS

250TH ANNIVERSARY BATTLES OF LEXINGTON & CONCORD SCAVENGER HUNT BOOKLET:
ANSWER KEY

PATRIOTS

It's the morning of April 19, 1775, and Paul Revere is missing from Boston! The local Sons of Liberty say they last saw Revere last night on his way to warn local militias about approaching British troops, but they haven't heard from him since.

As a loyal patriotic colonist, can you help find Paul Revere?

MISSING

PATRIOT PAUL REVERE

LAST SEEN RIDING WEST ON THE OLD CONCORD ROAD

Congratulations!

You've found out what happened to Paul Revere:

ENTERING
EST. 1630
WATERTOWN

He was freed after questioning, but couldn't get home since Boston was under siege following the battles of Lexington and Concord. He found housing across the river in Watertown, and was joined by most of his family. 15-year-old Paul Revere Jr stayed in Boston alone to watch the family home.

We've successfully traced Paul Revere and his allies' ride.

Can you put the names of the towns they visited in alphabetical order?

What have we learned about Paul Revere's ride that would help us find where he went?

Rearrange the letters below to find the answers.

- He works as a vtreiSlsmhi. Silversmith

- He was riding to warn locals about the British soldiers, whom he called lRusegar.

  Regulars

- He was joined on his ride by Mr. Dawes, whose first name is llWmaii. William

- Mid-ride, he was joined by Samuel secPrtot.

  Prescott

- He is a member of the Sons of rbLytie

  Liberty

- The sign to begin his ride was lanterns hung in the Old roNth chhurC. North Church

Oh No! We learned that Paul Revere, William Dawes, and Samuel Prescott were all stopped last night by a British patrol.

Revere was taken for questioning, but the others escaped.

Can you help Dawes and Prescott finish their ride?
