Vice President General

Join date: June 24, 2013

Chapter: Lieutenant George Farragut

Endorsed by: Idaho State Society

National Service:

Currently, Catherine is serving DAR as the National Vice Chair DAR Scholarship Committee, Dr. Francis Anthony Beneventi Medical Scholarship (2022-2025). She has served in the Continental Congress Member Lounge Specialty Shops, and on Tiers A-D. Catherine is a member of the National Officers Club, State Regents Club, and State Vice Regents Club. She is a newly minted Life Member, Heritage Club member, Sustaining Supporter - charter member, and in the 1890 Annual Giving Circle. She has graduated from the Members, New Horizons, and Committee Leaders courses.

State and Chapter Service:

Catherine is serving as the Idaho State Regent (2021-2023). She previously served as Idaho State Vice Regent (2019-2021). At the 2023 state conference the title of Honorary State Regent was conferred. While serving as State Regent she chaired the state committee for the President General's Project. She is a member of the Regents Club, Cameo Society, and Page Club.

Catherine served as Chapter Regent (2017-2019) and Chapter First Vice Regent (2015-2017) of the Lieutenant George Farragut Chapter in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. As part of her DAR chapter's Community Classroom Committee's "Revolutionary Ladies" group, she enjoys getting out her 18th century reproduction kitchenware to instruct adults and children about early American foods and cooking without modernity.

Non-DAR Information: A homemaker for 40 years, Catherine has been married to her husband, Terry, for 42 years. Together they have four children and six grandchildren. She has been a special needs advocate for the past 27 years and a homeschool teacher for 12 years. She recently served as the recording secretary at Peace Lutheran Church in Post Falls, Idaho, and currently serves as a board member of the Post Falls Historical Society. If Catherine has gone missing, you can find her in her garden. She is self-taught in the art of historical homemaking and thrives on making everything from scratch, including Martha Washington's Cherry Bounce. She has even been known to "clean" her wool rugs in fresh powder snow! Catherine enjoys photography, travel, hiking nature trails, and discovering history just around the bend. She is a member of the Edward Carleton Chapter, National Society Colonial Dames XVII Century. Catherine has served as Senior Corresponding Secretary and Senior Chaplain of the Idaho State Society C.A.R., and as Senior President of the Skitswish Society C.A.R. to support her grandson during his years in C.A.R. and his term as the Idaho State President.
