The State Regent's Project emphasized historic preservation, patriotism, and education, raising over $100,000 with the launch of the Legacy Society. Celebrating significant contributions to commemorating the nation's history, seventeen America 250! Markers were dedicated along the South Carolina Liberty Trail.

Ensuring preservation and accessibility for future generations, the State Regent's Project sponsored the refurbishment of the Eutaw Springs Battlefield and the Barnwell Veterans Park which also included the re-location of 35 Revolutionary War Markers originally dedicated in 1933 by a local DAR chapter. By recognizing and supporting veterans both past and present, the State Regent's Project provided acknowledgement and appreciation to those who have served this great nation. Distributing lesson plans to educators across South Carolina, the State Regent's Project helped instill a sense of pride and understanding of American history in students.

Through these efforts, the State Regent's Project successfully promoted historic preservation, patriotism, and education in South Carolina, leaving a lasting impact on local communities and future generations ensuring that the legacy of America's history continues to be cherished and celebrated.
