The Flag of the U.S.A. should never be used as a background, nor should any text or graphics of any kind be placed on top of it. Please do not use the flag as your website All text is correctly spelled and punctuated; good grammar is used, following the current VIS Style Guide. MUSIC Must have music player controls visible so visitors can pause or stop music. The National Anthem is not used. If copyrighted music is used, please give proper credit. DAR BUSINESS & POLICY No internal DAR business is displayed: no newsletters, yearbooks, directories, invitations, etc. For safety and protection of members, it is strongly advised that meeting locations not be listed on chapter or state public web pages. List an email contact, linking the position, not the name, for further information. Chapter calendars are for public view. Do not quote or copy content from NSDAR's website, instead provide a link to the information. Example: Eligibility requirements, scholarship information, DAR Schools. No politics of any kind. Links may be provided for the purpose of fundraising for DAR projects. Please see the NSDAR Online Guidelines. No derogatory remarks about DAR, allied organizations, or individuals are to be posted. A zero-tolerance policy will be enforced. Under NO circumstances shall national numbers or GRS information be shared on any public page. This is NSDAR proprietary information. DAR Ancestor Numbers are exempt from this policy. DAR is a non-political organization. NO politics shall be discussed on DAR sites. Children's name, photo, and identifying information are not to be posted without the written permission of the parent or guardian. Use DAR form NSDAR-1000. Keep signed permissions forms on file.

MOST IMPORTANT:

Read and follow the NSDAR Online Guidelines and the VIS Writing Style Guide which are available on the VIS Tools page of the VIS Committee website.
